Dear Friends:

It is a pleasure to welcome you to the Senior Alliance of South Florida's Fifth Annual Senior Lifestyle & Healthcare Expo at the Inverrary Country Club in Lauderhill, Florida.

This expo offers access to the largest elder market in the nation - South Florida - and features educational seminars, health screenings, entertainment, networking, exhibits and eldercare product presentations. Nationally, Florida has the highest population of elders over 65 and many of them come to South Florida to take advantage of the great weather, elder services and affordability. Thank you for your commitment to offering the elder population resourceful tools for effectively planning and living their retirement years.

Best wishes for a successful event.

Sincerely,
